LAD KIDNAPED BY MYSTERY MAN

ATTEMPT TO FREE WOMAN FAILS

Planned Escape for Mrs. Jesse Carson Unearthed

HELD AS CLARA PHILLIPS

Communication With Prisoner Thru Oranges Arranged

(BY HERMAN ROBLETO)
TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras — (United Press) — An attempt to free from jail the woman held here as Clara Phillips, Los Angeles hammer manufacturer, has been discovered by the police.

A group of romantic young men, real trouble-makers, offered their assistance to her in the attempt, communicating with her by notes sent to the jail in oranges.

The woman, held under the name of Mrs. Jesse Carson, offered money to her guards and intended to dash from the prison gates at 2 o'clock in the morning.

The full plan was discovered by the police, however, and the attempt is not to be made. The police are not to attach a great amount of importance to the scheme, believing it only the machinations of "movie" makers and their followers in a quest of adventure and romanticism.

UTMOST DILIGENCE
A careful watch is being maintained on the three prisoners—Mrs. Carson, Mrs. R. M. Young, "of Poughkeepsie, N. Y." and Jesse Carson, who says he is a promoter for American capitalists.

Since the discovery of the plot, prison attendants have been instructed to use the utmost diligence in observing every movement of the three. A group of Honduran photographers attempted to break the new self-imposed silence of Mrs. Carson, with a visit to the jail. They exhibited some American newspaper pictures of Clara Phillips to Mrs. Carson and pointed to the marked resemblance between the two. She looked at them carefully, but said nothing.

When the news men attempted to get the pictures back from her, she insisted that she be allowed to keep them and attempted to destroy them.

PLAN SOUGHT TO CHECK ABNORMALLY HIGH WAGES

NEW YORK — An advisory committee of fifteen builders, architects and bankers met today to discuss a plan to relieve the acute housing crisis in New York and New Jersey. The committee was named after a conference yesterday of one hundred men interested in building, at which it was agreed that "now building" or "normal" wages was one of the chief causes of the situation.

The conference was called, it was said, at the suggestion of Secretary of Commerce Hoover, who was requested to have indicated he would take a meeting in Washington to take up the matter.

Various builders declared that a day's demand had received housing contracts for $8 and $10, while others said they were "now" in a state of "now" without price.

$5,000,000 BOND ISSUE HELD UP

Injunction Against Cuyahoga-co Commissioners Upheld

STOPS BRIDGE BUILDING

Lorain-Huron High Level Structure Prohibited

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — The state supreme court today upheld the decision of the Cuyahoga-co common pleas court in granting an injunction to Edward Bushnell of Cleveland to prohibit the Cuyahoga-co commissioners from building the Lorain-Huron high level bridge. The court decision holds up a $5,000,000 bond issue for the purpose.

The five million dollars bond issue had been voted by the people, Bushnell obtained an injunction in the common pleas court to restrain the issuance of the first $500,000 for the purchase of a site for the bridge, on the ground that new lands could not be purchased, but that the bridge had to be located on an established route. Bushnell also contended that the bridge could not be constructed within the limits of the authorized bond issue.

The court of appeals reversed the common pleas court, dissolving the injunction, but the supreme court decision of today knocks out the appellate court decision and affirms the action of the common pleas court, thus allowing the injunction to stand.

County Prosecutor Stanton had refused to bring the suit to enforce issuance of the bonds so the suit was brought by Bushnell.

The decision of the supreme court was unanimous.

BATTLE FOR OIL CONTROL IS ON

Struggle Reported Between Standard and Independents

NEW YORK — (Associated Press) — A struggle for domination between two opposing elements in the petroleum industry is seen by Wall Street, the New York World says today. With the Standard Oil interests and a few other big refiners allied against independent companies operating chiefly in the mid-continent field. The total financing strength of the Standard Oil group is given as $32,000,000 by the paper and that of the independents as $48,200,000.

The offensive, which was behind the general smash in prices on the New York stock exchange yesterday, the World says, has been seen by the street for three weeks. The objective, it is asserted, is the wrecking of the independents and the eventual control of the mid-continent field by the Standard Oil interests and their allies.

ARTIFICIAL CUTS
"Recently gasoline prices have been subject to several cuts, always initiated by Standard companies and followed by the independents," the article says. "These cuts appear purely artificial to Wall Street for the reason that while consumption was increased enormously this year, Mexican production has continued to slump and the total supply of gasoline available is relatively lower than last year. For these reasons, it is said that the price reductions both in gasoline and California crude oil have been aimed at the independents. If the independents were out of the way it would be possible for the large interests to take advantage of decreasing Mexican yields and increasing consumption in this country to put the price of gasoline to almost any figure desired."

LAWYER MISSING, WIFE SOUGHT

Police Believe Prominent Illinois Man Murdered

HIS SPOUSE SUSPECTED

Woman's Glove Held as Clue—Son is Arrested

AURORA, Ill. — (Associated Press) — Unexplained circumstances and a possibility of murder in connection with the disappearance discovered yesterday of Warren J. Lincoln, attorney and prominent floriculturist and a distant relative of Abraham Lincoln, have caused police to widen their search for him or his body.

John Lincoln, 20, son of the missing man, was taken into custody and questioned. Police are searching for Mrs. Lincoln and her brother, Byron Shoup, and a "sandy haired stranger" Lincoln reported to police had been following him.

Lincoln's disappearance was reported by his brother Edward, who expressed belief that the missing man had been killed.

WELL PUMPED DRY

His bungalow had been ransacked and near the house was found a pool of blood and a blood-stained Indian club. A nearby flower bed bore the "print of a woman's heel. In a well which later was pumped dry in the search for the body, Lincoln's night shirt and a woman's glove were found.

From the house to the well private papers were scattered. Mrs. Lincoln is Lincoln's second wife and he had started divorce proceedings against her. Shoup was employed by Lincoln but after the filing of divorce proceedings both the wife and her brother disappeared.

The police concerned themselves with reports that Lincoln's life was insured for $10,000 and that recently he had made his son the beneficiary instead of Mrs. Lincoln.

MERIT SYSTEM IN POLICE AFFAIRS

Board Elected by Officers—Courtesy is Stressed

A merit and demerit system has been instituted in the Lima police department, according to announcement Tuesday of Chief T. A. Lane. The system went into effect May 1.

Under this plan, policemen will be rated on their neatness, courtesy, technical neglect or application on duty, for commendable acts and along other lines.

Officers Ed Swaney and Joe Reid were elected members of the merit board by policemen Monday afternoon. Superior officers in the department will do the scoring and will check up with the merit board.

One of the big points to be taken into consideration, Chief Lane said, is observation. Policemen who overlook small violations of the law such as no tail lights on automobiles and holes in the street, will be given demerits.

In connection with courtesy of officers, a circular letter was sent out Tuesday to all departments of the city government, stressing courtesy in telephone conversations.

"Courtesy is the refining oil that lubricates daily affairs and the more of it we give away, the more we have on hand," the letter says.

BLISS APPOINTED

Columbus Man Named Special Investigator by Donahey

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — Governor Donahey today announced the appointment of John A. Bliss of Columbus, for many years head of the state bureau of accounting, as a special investigator of the executive department. It was announced he probably first will make an investigation of certain road contracts which either have been completed or are in process of fulfillment.

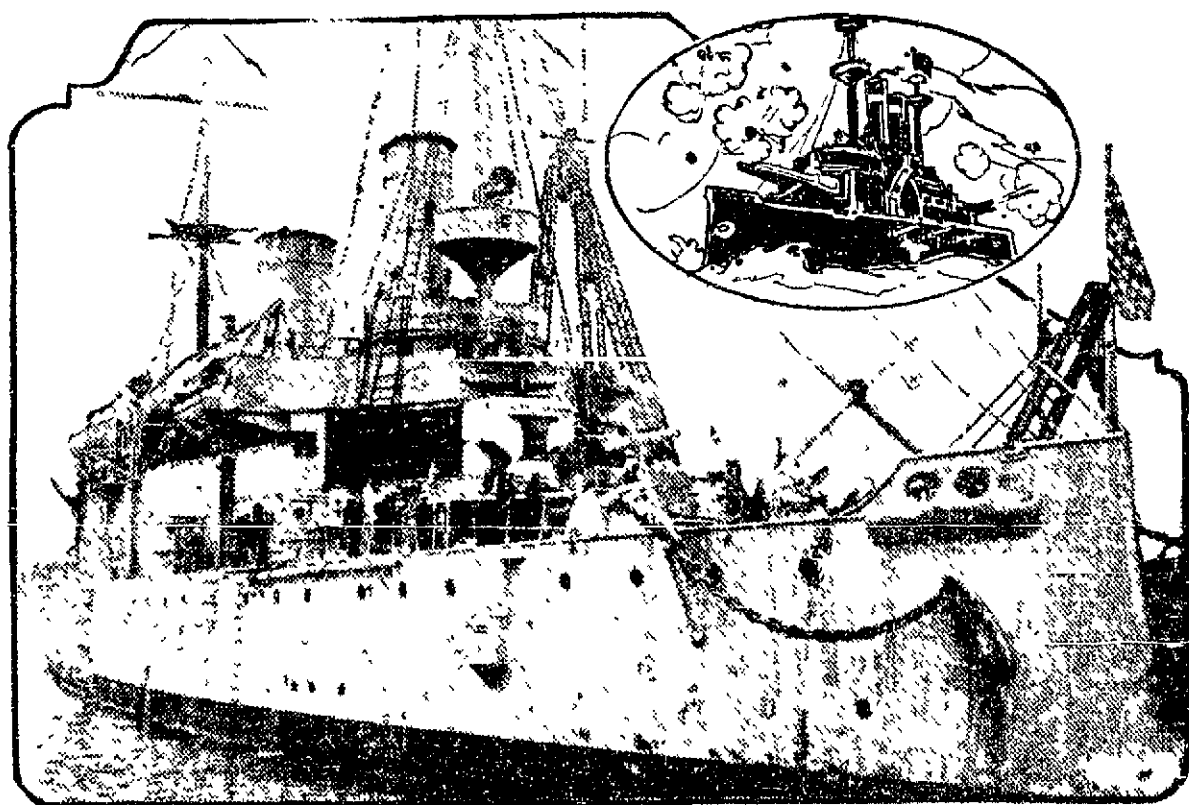

Bliss is a Republican, but his personal friendship with Governor Donahey dates back to the governor's activities as auditor of state, under which the bureau of accounting functions.

The Bliss will be a personal representative of the governor, being paid from the chief executive's contingent fund, authority for making the appointment is vested in the reorganization code, department of finance.

Bliss has been doing special investigating work for State Auditor Tracy, particularly the fair ground fire of about a year ago when a number of exhibit buildings and surplus war materials were destroyed.

In his investigations, Bliss is clothed with blanket authority and may go into any department of state government. All books and records are to be at his convenience.

"SAVE THE OLYMPIA," RENEWED CRY

THE U. S. S. OLYMPIA, ADMIRAL DEWEY'S FLAGSHIP, NOW IN THE PHILADELPHIA NAVY YARD

LIQUOR BAN MAY BRING CLASH

French, British Indignant Over U. S. Court Decision

REPRISALS THREATENED

American Ships to Stay Dry Despite Lid Lifting

PARIS — (United Press) — Decision of the United States supreme court that the Volstead act bans liquor from foreign vessels within the three-mile limit, is likely to result in serious reprisals against American ships in French ports.

The decision is looked upon as an "outrage of justice" by high officials of French steamer lines who have not the slightest idea yet how they will move to combat the restriction.

The government could hold American ships for long delays in port on technicalities which may arise from the ruling. Definite action along this line is being discussed, it is learned.

President Dal Piaz, of the French line which operates the largest French liners to New York, declared the decision was certain to "provoke complications."

"It is a grave step," he told the United Press. "We must have the actual text of the decision and see in what circumstances we are limited before we can make any decision as to our actions."

BRITISH INDIGNANT
LONDON — (United Press) — British steamship officials immediately moved for collective action against the decision of the United States supreme court barring liquor from foreign vessels, within the American three-mile limit. Those in charge of the largest British lines were most indignant.

The various officials held hasty telephone conferences this morning endeavoring to arrange a meeting at the earliest possible moment to adopt a definite policy. It is said this meeting probably will be held in Liverpool within a few days.

While there was no indication that the companies would defy the ruling, the meeting is expected to plan a common policy for defending the rights of the British interests.

Officials of the Cunard Line told the United Press today that the idea of unloading liquor from their boats at the American three-mile limit and then loading up again at the same point on their return trip is impracticable and just a bit fantastic.

U. S. SHIPS REMAIN DRY
WASHINGTON — (United Press) — American ships on the high seas will continue dry in spite of the supreme court's ruling that outside the three-mile limit, vessels are outside the Volstead law.

The opinion of government officials in practically all departments having to do with shipping or liquor. Having the court theoretically opened the way to making the Atlantic ocean a great "booze way," the practical difficulties confronting American ship owners make it extremely unlikely, officials said, that any great number of American vessels will be wet when they get beyond the line.

REASONS ADVANCED
Two reasons were advanced to support this view.

1—"Too much trouble" in maintaining the suggested floating warehouses on the fringe of the three-mile limit which would be essential to stock bars on outgoing ships and to receive liquor supplies from inbound vessels.

2—"The almost certain action of the next congress in passing a law caulking the leak in the Volstead law, which permitted the supreme court to make its ruling. Congress is believed certain to make all American ships everywhere bone dry."

Manifest difficulties in the way of the maintenance of floating warehouses were pointed out today. These include the obvious expense of maintaining such "checking stations," including personnel and defense measures.

Preservation of Dewey's Flagship Sought on This Anniversary of Battle

PHILADELPHIA — (Special) — "Save the Olympia."

This is the cry, renewed with determination on this, the twenty-fifth anniversary of the battle of Manila Bay.

Members of the United Spanish War Veterans are circulating a petition to save the Olympia, Dewey's flagship during the memorable battle.

The Olympia lies all but forgotten in the lagoon at the Philadelphia navy yard, waiting to be scrapped under the provisions of the Washington conference for limitation of naval arms. The veterans wish her preserved as a floating memorial.

The battle of Manila Bay in which the late Admiral George Dewey, then a commodore, destroyed the Spanish fleet without the loss of a man on a ship, ranks with the most colorful in American history.

At 5 o'clock on the morning of May 1, Dewey's squadron steamed into the harbor and bombarded the fortifications of the bay and the ships of the enemy. The Spanish ships outnumbered the American fleet, but because of better training and better fighting equipment Dewey made a clean job of it.

Official news of the victory quickly trickled back to the United States. Newspapers of May 2 carried complete accounts of the victory in dispatches from London, Madrid and Hongkong.

It was not until May 7, however, that Dewey's official cablegram of confirmation reached Washington, from Hongkong. Direct cable from Manila had been cut.

Dewey was raised to the rank of rear admiral, and soon afterward made admiral.

The Olympia, around which there now rages a storm of protest against its destruction, played a mighty part in this battle.

The bronze tablet, presented by the citizens of Olympia, Wash., is still on the ship.

"Gridley, you may fire when you are ready," the words spoken to Captain Gridley by Dewey, is the legend on this tablet.

Veterans of the Spanish War want the ship made a trophy vessel, important as a fighter but valuable as a patriotic shrine and monument to the stirring days of the Spanish War.

HOUSE FIRED TO CAPTURE NEGRO

Alabama Man Defies Police—Three Killed in Battle

HELENA, Ala. — (Associated Press) — Failure of a negro miner to receive his pay check resulted in a killing, and two others being wounded here yesterday afternoon and night. After riot calls had been sent to the Shelby co. seat at Columbiana and to the sheriff's office in Birmingham a house in which the negro had barricaded himself was dynamited and fired by a posse of nearly a hundred officers and citizens.

The dead are: Allen Abernathy, 22, Birmingham; Charlie Phillips, 22, Roebuck, Ala. John King, negro, 45, Helena, Ala.

According to witnesses, the negro went to the office of the coal company and asked for his pay. After being told by Abernathy, the time clerk, that he would have to wait, he left without comment.

He returned in a few minutes, drew a pistol and shot Abernathy. King barricaded himself in his house about 300 yards from the office.

A posse immediately went to King's home. King opened fire. When reinforcements came, it was decided to dynamite and fire the house. King was forced from the house by the boat, and dragged him self toward the gate, firing at random. His last shot struck Phillips, who, unarmed, was standing on an embankment. A bullet struck King just above the right eye, killing him.

FINDING OF BONES SOLVES MYSTERY

Disappearance of Chicago Student Cleared up

SKELETON IS IDENTIFIED

Death Traced to Northwestern Class Rush in 1921

CHICAGO — (Associated Press) — Leighton Mount, Northwestern University student, missing since the September, 1921 class rush, whose skeleton was found on the Evanston lake front last night, was killed in the class rush. Chief of Police Leggett of Evanston, declared today.

Chief Leggett and President Walter Dill Scott of the University met today to arrange for the inquest tomorrow morning. Chief Leggett announced that the boys who testified at the hearing held soon after Mount's disappearance, would be among those summoned to testify at the inquest.

CHICAGO — (Associated Press) — A skeleton found last night partly buried in the sand under a pier on the Michigan lake front in Evanston, fashionable North Shore suburb, was identified as that of Leighton Mount, Northwestern University freshman who disappeared in September, 1921, after a class rush.

Mrs. J. L. Mount, mother of the youth for whom a nation-wide search was made, identified a belt buckle, initialed "L. M.," and bits of clothing as those of her son.

From the skeleton bones of both arms and hands and one foot were missing.

HAZARD CONTROVERSY
Young Mount vanished from his classes in the midst of a spirited controversy over the evils of hazing. His disappearance came on the heels of a sensation surrounding the rescue of Arthur P. Persinger, who was bound head downward to a piling in the lake. It was said in some quarters that Persinger had been forgotten in the confusion of the class fighting, altho Northwestern University officials issued statements protesting that Persinger had not been hazed and that Mount had not been dealt with seriously.

With the bones found last night was said to have been a rotted piece of rope similar to that used in tying student prisoners in the class rush preceding Mount's disappearance.

While Chief of Police Leggett at Evanston declared he did not believe that university students were responsible for Mount's death, he added his force was giving thought to that possibility.

Henry Warren, 22, found the bones under the pier when he crawled thru a small hole in the concrete out of curiosity. He took home a leg bone and his mother notified the police.

THOUSANDS THROW OUT OF WORK BY FLOODS

BOSTON — Several million dollars have been caused by freshets in New England the last two days and the situation is still serious. Rivers are swollen by continued rains and fed by melting snow in the mountain districts.

Thousands of persons have been thrown out of work by the flooding of mill property, the interruptions to power supply that have come with the breaking of dams and the enforced suspensions of railroad and street car service. Maine is the heaviest sufferer, millions of feet of lumber having been swept away.

HUNTED BY USE OF WIRELESS

Schenectady Business Man's Son Taken From His Home

LURED BY OFFER OF RABBIT

Abductor Described by Sisters of Victim

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. — (United Press) — Kidnaped by a man who lured him away by offering to give him a rabbit, Verner Alexanderson, 6, son of E. F. Alexanderson, chief engineer of the Radio Corporation of America, is being sought by wireless all over the eastern part of the United States today.

The child disappeared from in front of his home, where he was playing with his two sisters, about 2:15 p. m. yesterday. He has been traced to Albany, where he is believed to have been taken to a house on Hamilton-st.

The police are making a search of that district for him.

Meanwhile the radio, in the development of which the boy's father has played a prominent part for years, is broadcasting his description and asking all who hear the call to help rescue the boy from his kidnappers.

THEORIES LACKING
Alexanderson himself was unable today to advance a single theory to account for the kidnapping. He said that so far as he knew he had no enemies. He has received no threats, nor demands for money.

The kidnapping evidently was carefully planned. The abductor's description was given in detail by Edith Alexanderson, 11, one of the boy's sisters with whom he was playing when he disappeared. Gertrude, 7, another sister, also was able to tell something of the man, having seen him several times before. He was described as about 25 years old, slender, medium height, with a small brown moustache and brown hair. His suit was dark, he wore a derby hat.

The man had stopped several times during the last few days to talk with Verner and his sisters as they played in front of their father's house. Repeatedly, he told them he could get them some rabbits. He took pains to make friends with all three.

BUNNIES READY
Yesterday, he stopped again and informed the children that the "bunnies" were ready.

"You little girls go and get a box for the bunnies," he said. "Verner and I will go down the street and get them."

Edith and Gertrude went for the box. The last they saw of their brother he was marching away, hand in hand with the man.

When they returned with the box Verner was nowhere to be seen.

The father, as soon as he was notified, made preparations to have the wireless used in the hunt. Last night radio fans in many cities heard fragments of the father and his abductor coming through the ether. Verner is blonde with a fair, ruddy complexion and a friendly manner.

When he disappeared, he wore a blue serge coat,umper, sailor hat, brown shoes and stockings.

The first response to the wireless call came from a woman who telephoned police she had seen a man and a boy answering the description walking thru the streets of Schenectady about 3:15 p. m. This woman refused to give her name and disconnected when asked questions.

The next clue came from W. E. Smith, who declared he saw a man and a boy answering the description, boarding a downtown street car a few minutes after the kidnapping. The street car company today is questioning all its crews to ascertain whether they remember having seen the pair and where they left the trolley.

Another clue led to Albany. Harold Bauechell told police he saw a man and a boy alight from a Schenectady taxicab in front of the union station, Albany, about 2:15 a. m. today. They entered the station but emerged in a few minutes and got into the taxi again. He heard the man tell the driver to go to an address on Hamilton-st. He failed to catch the exact number.

Police Chief James W. Ryne, of Schenectady, said today he had heard nothing definite and conclusive regarding the kidnapping since the boy disappeared. He did not take much stock in telephone call from the mysterious woman, as she refused to give her name. There has been no demand for ransom, he said.

District Attorney A. T. Bloor said today he has received a tip that two men carrying a child wrapped in a blanket were seen in a Cadillac automobile at Northville, about 50 miles north of Schenectady at 6 p. m. yesterday. He said they were headed for Clarksburg, which would indicate that if they were the kidnappers they had driven north and then doubled back, as Clarksburg is southwest of Northville.

Policemen said he was rather skeptical of the clue which led to Albany.

The district attorney conferred with Alexanderson and Mrs. Alexanderson at their home today.

"I cannot understand why anyone could take our child," Alexanderson said. "There is no motive and we had no warning of any kind."

Mrs. Alexanderson, while shocked at the abduction kept her nerve. Instead of succumbing to hysterics or going to bed she stayed "on the job" ready to give any help she could to start at once for the scene if the boy is located.

15 GET SUMMONS IN THEFT CASES

Will Appear as Grand Jury Witnesses Wednesday

CONFESSION BY KIRBY ROLLS

Spencerville Marshal Locates More Stolen Tires

Arrest of Kirby Rolls, 22, Spencerville youth at Portland, Indiana, and the issuing of subpoenas for 13 persons residing in the west end of Allen-co, to appear before the grand jury Wednesday, will complete the case of the state against the alleged tire ring, authorities announced Tuesday.

Rolls was taken to Celina, following his arrest in the floosier city. He was kept over night in Mercer-co jail and was brought to Lima Tuesday.

In a partial confession, said to have been made to detectives at Celina Monday night, Rolls declared he knew something of the gang's operations.

He refused, however, to admit a direct connection with the robbery of garages at Continental, Grover Hill and elsewhere.

Sheriff Harvey Croson and Prosecuting Attorney Eugene T. Lippincott, declared Tuesday they have an abundance of evidence to submit regarding the operations of the tire ring.

MORE TIRES LOCATED
Discovery of several alleged stolen tires by Marshal Ernest Henne, of Spencerville, Tuesday, places still further evidence in the hands of authorities.

The tires were located in the possession of residents of the village, who are said to have purchased them, but under peculiar circumstances.

Ability to obtain grappling hooks for the purpose has so far balked Sheriff Croson in his intention to drag the pond in Geiger's quarry west of Lima for tires.

One tire was discovered in the pond Sunday by a fisherman.

A three day session of the grand jury was predicted Tuesday by Prosecutor Lippincott. Aside from the investigation of the tire ring, the most important matters to be considered will be charges of incest against Otis Morey, and the circumstances surrounding the death of Opal Morey, the sister he is alleged to have betrayed.

Nearly a score of law violations will be probed by the jury.

Housewives are beginning their annual pastime of house-cleaning and man, poor man, is eating his meals standing up in the kitchen in many homes.

An injunction temporarily restraining R. S. Striepling from disposing of a $9,000 note executed in his favor, was granted the Hoover Ranch company, furniture dealers, in common pleas court, Tuesday noon.

ADVANCES MADE IN RENTALS

Stationary in Many Cities, However, as Shown on Moving Day

A check-up of rents thruout the country on the nation's moving day today, shows advances up to 25 per cent are being made in many cities.

In the greater number of localities, however, rents are being maintained at the stationary height to which they were elevated during the war, a summary of the situation made by the United Press showed.

The biggest advance, 25 per cent, was made in Detroit during the last year.

It is predicted that another ten per cent raise will be added by fall.

In Charleston, W. Va., increases of 10 to 15 per cent have been made in the last year. Rents are steadily increasing in Philadelphia and real estate dealers attribute it to increased valuation of properties. A five per cent advance has been made at Columbus, Ohio, and in Atlanta rents are reported generally ten per cent higher than this time last year.

A ten per cent jump has been made at Houston, Tex.

The only city to report a decrease was Dallas, Texas, where the president of the Real Estate Board claimed rents were 15 per cent lower.

There is no radical change in New York rents, but thousands were moving.

In Cleveland moderate rents have been advanced about two per cent.

The Tenants League of Chicago, where 100,000 moved, claims increases have been made there. Boston reports a generally higher cost there. In Portland, Ore., a slight upward trend is being noticed.

DIVORCE LITIGANT IS WARNED TO CURB TEMPER

"Curb your temper, or go to the hoosegow."

That was the warning given Ron McClain, in common pleas court Tuesday, when he was arraigned before Judge Fred C. Becker, charged with contempt of court.

McClain is alleged to have discovered his wife, Julia, walking with another man Sunday morning. He struck her, according to a complaint made by her to the police. Mrs. McClain denied that she was walking arm in arm with another man. She was one of a party of several persons, including her sister, she explained.

In so doing, McClain violated an injunction granted the woman by Judge Becker, restraining McClain from interfering with or molesting her.

An action for divorce filed by Mrs. McClain is pending before Judge Becker.

McClain promised the court he would be good, if given another chance.

Housing Lack Hits Plans On "Moving Day"

Moving today? Tuesday is national moving day and altho not covered by presidential proclamation, activities of local vans all day were characteristic.

Local trucking companies report lack of the usual May 1 transfer of household goods from one part of the city to another. Several Lima men are piously trying to fit an 18 foot Brussels rug into a 16 foot room and wondering why they moved.

There was little moving done. Chief of the reasons is the fact that there are few houses to rent. W. R. Mumaugh, president of the Real Estate board, states that never before have there been so many inquiries for rental houses.

Moving day sees not only a shifting population within, but a clamoring for admittance from without, it is apparent.

Young Bros., local trucking company, declare they are doing all the hauling they can manage, and that business has increased notably within the last few days. Most transfers are long distance hauls, some going out and some, who have places to come to, moving in.

D. L. Goodyear, of the Lima Truck & Storage company, reports that in addition to calls for truck service he has disposed of much storage room within the past few days.

A neat problem for those interested in the future growth of the city might be an accounting for those persons who, upon the national moving day, store their furniture.

HARLEY PROTESTS HIGGINS LETTER

"Maple Syrup King" is Ruled Out of Order

CLASH AT COMMISSION MEET

Proposed City Legislation is Given Setback

Hot words from Commissioner John H. Harley, addressed to Jonathan R. Higgins, "Maple Syrup King," who attempted to make a public communication to the commission, marked the meeting Monday evening. Higgins was declared out of order before he could reply.

Outraged by the sale and display of incense and restricting house moving on city streets were held over after a session. A bond of $1,000 to pay salary of police and firemen was authorized. The bond will be sold to the sinking fund trustee and the money, which is due, will be paid this week.

Higgins' communication was in the form of a letter addressed to the secretary of the Socialist party at Dayton, who had asked Higgins to pick out a good corner on which August Claessens, former member of the New York State assembly, could address a public meeting.

Higgins replied in the letter, which was read before the commission, that the corner of 10th and 11th streets was a good one and a lot of it.

For speech and a free fire alarm was applied from Lima. Higgins letter declared: "We have about as much democracy here as there was in Russia under the Czar. Neck, the only man in the world, is coming to Lima to address the commission."

HARLEY OBJECTS

When Mr. Clark Harley, who was reading the letter, came to a paragraph in the end of it, "We have about as much democracy here as there was in Russia under the Czar," he declared that it was a "German" and "a lot of it."

"You may not stand for the commission," John Higgins replied in a fatherly tone.

"I object and I don't intend to sit here and listen to that 'made in Germany' stuff," Harley declared.

"If you were of mind to do it," Higgins replied, "you would know that I was referring to the origin of the commission, not of government. It was founded in Germany."

"All right," Higgins declared, "I will not say it."

"You're out of order," Mr. Higgins declared.

THE DEISEL CO.
Lima's Big Store

a Contest to Show the Biggest Gain

Blue or Red

Whenever you come to The Big Store in May you will find our entire staff wearing either blue or red ribbons, indicating to which army they belong. It will remind you that each and every one trying to make it worth your while to shop at The Big Store. Every blue and every red will try to serve you so efficiently that you will favor the color. And what a hustle there will be between the scenes among the non-selling help to see that there are no slips in service!

An army of red ribboners under the leadership of J. C. Campbell — an army of blue ribboners under C. W. Buhl. And every employee of The Big Store is enrolled in one or the other army. It's our employees own suggestion — ratified at an enthusiastic meeting Monday night. They're striving to see which side will add the most customers in May — striving to see which side will outdo the other in sales. They're out to double the business and we've given them a free rein. Told them to show us how to do it—and they say they can! Generals Buhl and Campbell with their lieutenants are in complete charge of the store organization for May. Everyone in the store is on tiptoe! You'll see bargains galore, for each side is determined to win—and this big advertisement is an indication of the vim with which they're going after business!

Everybody Shares

Over and entirely outside of all salary and bonus stipulations, every employee of The Big Store will have an extra share in the income of this business during this great contest. That share will be automatically increased with every step upward in number of customers and in sales. Everyone shares alike whether belonging to the selling or non-selling staff—so everyone will be eager to see that you are promptly and carefully served.

road on the south and Grand-av on the north.

The ordinance was laid on the table for one week.

The recommendation of the city manager that an ordinance be passed to prohibit unnecessary electrical disturbance of the atmosphere by radio "sparks" sets, was received and filed. Further action is not likely, as the government had legislation covering the subject, it is pointed out.

An ordinance destroying bond No. 1 of the $8,300 issued on paying of Ewing-ay was passed. The bond matured April 15, while the initial date of maturity is August 10.

A license was imposed on special policeman by an ordinance which provides a fee of $5 be paid by the licensee. The fee will go to the police pension fund.

CONTRACT AUTHORIZED

The city manager was authorized to enter in contract with the McHugh-Cole company for the construction of the Main St. and Public sq. police sewer at $69,983.

On recommendation of the manager, a committee composed of Cunningham, Jones and John was appointed to inspect property on the Ottawa river, the owner of which have agreed to pay 80 per cent of the cost of construction, walls to prevent cave-ins along the bank where the river was widened. The city's 20 per cent of the cost would come from the river improvement fund, the city manager said, which now has $12,000.

Special assessments were ordered against property owners for whom sidewalks were laid by the city after the owner failed to lay them.

The city manager was instructed to authorize the superintendent of the Water Works department to work more than 8 hours a day on account of the great amount of work to be done. The state industrial commission last week notified the commission to discontinue the practice, but it was found that the city's charter gives it authority to exceed the 8-hour limit when circumstances require it.

A resolution determining to proceed with paying on Robb-ay from Main to West was adopted and ordinances on installation of sewers in McDonnell from Ashton to O'Connor, O'Connor from Metcalf to West; Ashton, Metcalf to West; Ruyman, Metcalf to McDonnell, Elm, Woodlawn to corporation line, were passed.

The sum of $150 was transferred from depository interest to public works and $275 from the same fund to the health department.

HARLEY PROTESTS HIGGINS LETTER

"Maple Syrup King" is Ruled Out of Order

CLASH AT COMMISSION MEET

Proposed City Legislation is Given Setback

Hot words from Commissioner John Harley, addressed to Jonathan R. Higgins, "maple syrup king," who attempted to make a public communication to the commission, marked the meeting Monday evening. Higgins was declared out of order before he could reply.

Ordinances regulating the sale and display of fire-arms and restricting house moving on city streets were held over after discussion. A second bond issue of $1,500 to pay salaries of police and firemen was authorized. The bonds will be sold to the sinking fund trustees and the money, which is due, will be paid this week.

Higgins' communication was in the form of a letter addressed to the secretary of the Socialist party at Dayton, who had asked Higgins to pick out a good corner on which August Claassen, former member of the New York State assembly, could address a public meeting.

Higgins replied in the letter, part of which was read before the commission, that Claassen need not come to Lima unless accompanied by a regiment of soldiers and a body of lawyers.

"Free speech and a free press long ago disappeared from Lima," Higgins' letter declared. "We have almost as much democracy here as there was in Russia under the late Czar Nick. The open market for socialism, Communism and other forms is the year round."

HARLEY OBJECTS

When City Clerk Hume, who was reading the letter, came to a paragraph near the end declaring, "We have the untold commission-city manager form of government, made in Germany," Harley electrified spectators, who had been much amused by Higgins' letter, by jumping to his feet and shouting, "Mr. President, I object. I object treasonously. Higgins is trying to turn this commission meeting into a farce and I for one won't stand for it."

"You may not stand for the commission," Harley said, "but Higgins is a traitor."

"I'm sick and tired of your monkey business, Higgins," Harley shouted back, "and I don't intend to sit here and listen to that 'made in Germany' stuff."

"If you were informed, John," Higgins replied, "you would know that I was referring to the origin of the commission form of government. It was first used in Germany."

"Mr. President," Harley shouted, "I ask you to stop this."

"You're out of order, Mr. Higgins," Harley's opponent replied.

Higgins left the floor. The letter, the remainder of it unread, was entered in the minutes.

The ordinance prohibiting the display and regulating the sale of "pistols, revolvers, blackjacks, knuckles and other one-hand fire-arms or similar devices" was put on its first reading at the request of Commissioner Rohn, who declared that hardware dealers and other merchants selling fire-arms were not acquainted with its provisions.

TERMS OF ORDINANCE

The ordinance would require all persons wishing to purchase such fire-arms to show a permit issued by the Chief of Police, and when the purchase is made the holder of the permit would be required to sign it. The permit would go to the police department, with a description of the purchase, for record. A fee of $10 would be charged for selling such fire-arms and a 50-cent fee would be collected on each permit to purchase.

Rohn also delayed passage of the house moving ordinance.

"With the present shortage of houses in Lima and the high cost of building, it is sometimes impossible for the workingman to acquire a home unless he buys and moves it to another lot. I want another week on it," Rohn said.

Breckinridge defended the ordinance, but Jones and Harley thought the absolute prohibition of house moving within the five limits took in too much territory. The five limits are the B. & O. Railroad on the east, McDonald-st on the west, Erie rail-

An army of red ribboners under the leadership of J. C. Campbell — an army of blue ribboners under C. W. Buhl. And every employee of The Big Store is enrolled in one or the other army. It's our employees own suggestion — ratified at an enthusiastic meeting Monday night. They're striving to see which side will add the most customers in May — striving to see which side will outdo the other in sales. They're out to double the business and we've given them a free rein. Told them to show us how to do it—and they say they can! Generals Buhl and Campbell with their lieutenants are in complete charge of the store organization for May. Everyone in the store is on tiptoe! You'll see bargains galore, for each side is determined to win—and this big advertisement is an indication of the vim with which they're going after business!

SUGAR DICTATOR MAY BE URGED

Request of Government Action Discussed by Women

WOULD RATION THE PRODUCT

Boycott Movement Backed by Secretary Hoover

NEW YORK — (Associated Press.)—Supplementing Mayor H. L. Davis' action in telegraphing President Harding in regard to the use of sugar, a group of the city's business leaders today urged that publicly advocated rationing of the product be taken. The group, which included the city's leading business leaders, urged that the government take action to ration the product.

The women of the city today for a series of mass meetings at greater city, at which time not only will be discussed the use of sugar, but also the use of other commodities. The meetings will be held in the city's leading business districts, and the women of the city will be urged to take action to ration the product.

HOOPER BACKS BOYCOTT
WASHINGTON, (Associated Press.)—Secretary of Commerce Hoover today approved the boycott of sugar, which is being organized by American women, as the most effective means of controlling the sugar market.

SEEK DISSOLUTION OF COMPANY

Hearing of Suit Against Printing Concern Opens at Ottawa

Hearing in the suit of J. T. Madsen and A. P. Sandles against The Ottawa Printing Company, seeking dissolution of the printing concern, began at 9 a. m. Tuesday before Judge George Fritz in the court room at the Putnam-co high school.

The petitioners, who represent themselves as owners of one-third of the company's entire stock, declare in their petition, filed January 20, 1923, that dissolution is necessary because stock, property and effects have been so reduced by alleged dissipation that a true statement of assets would show the corporation to be insolvent.

For five years stockholders have received no dividends except one of one per cent in February, 1921, it was noted at that time the corporation enjoyed prosperity, the petitioners say, and also that before the time stockholders had for 15 years been receiving ten per cent dividends in cash per annum.

The role to be portrayed by Miss Sears is that of a colored youth. Each characterization offers abundant opportunities for clever impersonation.

The baccalaureate services for the graduating class will be held May 20 at Trinity Presbyterian church, Superintendent Edwin Sommers announced Tuesday.

The sermon will be delivered by Rev. W. A. Sears, former pastor, now located in Creston.

PERSONAL TAX RETURNS IN PUTNAM-CO ATTAIN ANTICIPATED RESULTS

Careful inspection of tax returns as they were certified to the auditor's office has prevented much added work and made it evident that returns on personal property have been made as they should be, A. B. Bruskotter, Putnam-co auditor, said Tuesday.

An eleven hour rush brought the total number of returns well within the 6,500 expected.

Bruskotter said he is satisfied the returns are correct. Autos, which caused most of the doubts were listed thru aid of the "auto blue book," giving the value of machines according to years in which they were manufactured.

Assessors of the county will meet at the courthouse May 7 to look over the returns.

In addition to the three-year cup now in possession of Pandora high school, a medal will be awarded the boy placing high in all events. Another medal will be given for second place. A medal will be given the girl who wins first place in each of the four girls' events.

Officials of the meet will be Robert Fletcher, Findlay; H. D. Mall, Continental and Clarence Foulkes, Vaughnsville.

Each of the high schools in the county, including Ottawa, Leipsic, Columbus Grove, Continental, Kalia, Pandora, Sugar Creek, Crawfis college, Vaughnsville, Belmont, Ottoville, and Glandorf, are expected to send representatives.

The grand jury will convene May 21 for investigation of a number of cases on which Prosecuting Attorney J. S. Ogan now is working. The petit jury will meet the following day.

Miss Beatrice Sears will strive to bring the honors to Ottawa thru her oration "Makers of Empire." Miss Lucille Avers will represent Leipsic.

A delegate to the meet was to be chosen Tuesday at Vaughnsville high school in an elimination contest, Superintendent C. V. Schneider announced.

QUITS UNCLE SAM TO BECOME JOB PRINTER

Ed Heckford, for 20 years employed at the Ottawa postoffice, tendered his resignation to Postmaster Stanley Kerr, effective Tuesday.

Kerr will make an appointment to fill the vacancy from among the three highest on the civil service eligible list.

Heckford will open a job printing plant in the DeFord-bldg, opposite the courthouse. He was formerly employed at Lima and Ottawa print shops.

He held down one of the clerical positions in the postoffice for four years. He began as a rural mail carrier.

DEATH HALTS HEARING OF ASSESSMENT SUIT

Due to the death of a relative of Attorney Harry Core, counsel for plaintiffs, hearing in the injunction suit filed by Columbus Grove taxpayers seeking to prevent alleged excessive assessments for paving of Sycamore-st, was postponed in Putnam-co common pleas court.

The hearing was to be held Tuesday, nine witnesses having been subpoenaed for appearance at that time, but it was continued until Wednesday morning.

Improvement at Opening of May is Noted
 EXCITED ORDERING CHECKED
 Feverish Conditions of March Quieted, Forbes Reports

(BY B. C. FORBES)
 NEW YORK (Special) — The opening of May saw a more satisfactory conditions than existed at the opening of April and March. Unhealthy inflationary symptoms then in evidence have been largely eliminated. Operations are now being conducted more soundly. The actual producing of goods, the actual movement of goods, the actual consumption of goods has not been lessened. What has happened has been abatement of excited ordering of goods for distant delivery at fancy prices and disappearance of high premiums for early shipment. In other words, manufacturing plants, retail stores, and the railroads are as busy as before; only speculative ordering has quieted down.

Whereas March brought rather feverish conditions which begot alarm in thoughtful minds, April has been characterized by more healthy symptoms and activities. The net result is that a more hopeful view of the outlook is now justified. Had a wild boom been careering along, such an episode as we are witnessing in sugar might have precipitated widespread trouble. It is often said that a single shot fired by a weak-minded fanatic caused the World War. Such a shot would not have brought world wide war had not conditions been ripe. Doctors tell us that when the human system gets into a very weak condition, sickness cannot be started by the most trivial cause. So it is with our economic system; when tremendously high blood-pressure-inflation develops, there is no telling how important an incident may precipitate a grave relapse.

Of course, however, too severe deflationary measures must be avoided. Secretary of Commerce Hoover's order to stop all public building, coming at a time when the business and speculative pace was becoming reckless, had a salutary effect. But the Federal Reserve Board acted wisely in not advancing rediscount rates when impractical theories were clamoring for it to do so. The tendency to fly to one extreme having been checked, we all must guard against doing anything to incite flying to the other extreme. Happily, business is now moving along on a reasonably even keel, and by the exercise of prudent caution all round, there is no reason within sight why good times should not continue. Latest developments have been balancing one another, so to speak. May wheat last week went to a new high figure for the year and cotton also enjoyed a sharp recovery. Yet, as Dun's points out, the feature of the week's fluctuations "is the excess of foodstuffs, declines over advances, the former outnumbering the latter by nearly two to one." Oil production has been running at a volume never before reached. But the week brought declines in both crude oil and gasoline prices. Steel output is notably heavy. But buyers have ceased to bid up prices on one another. Tin moved higher. But copper has receded to 16 1/2 cents a pound. Sterling has fallen to a new low point for the year. But French francs have advanced quite sharply. February export figures, published some little time ago, revealed an increase of fully $56,000,000 over the previous year. But now come the important statistics showing expansion not more than $50,000,000, cutting down the excess of exports to only $11,100,000 for the month, the smallest balance for any month since 1914. But stocks and bonds, on quieter trading, sagged fractionally during the week. But the Federal Reserve Banks came along with their weekly report showing a raise of 1 1/2 per cent in reserves, to the high point of the year, 77 per cent. Offsetting the spectacular rise in sugar, there were again more declines than advances in wholesale commodity prices last week, making the preponderance of declines for the full month quite marked. The American Woolen Company announced price advances "ranging from 1 0/10 to 60 cents per yard for duplicate orders on fall lines of men's wear fabrics." But print cloths, the basic material in the textile industry, declined slightly. The week brought a distinct drop in the number of business failures. But the mercantile agencies reported that "wholesale buying and bookings by manufacturers for the future are again quieter, while collections still lag," and that there was "abatement of new buying" and a "check to the rise of prices." If labor continues to act as reasonably as it has been acting, necessary wage readjustments in directions where readjustment has not been made, ought to be effected without disturbances. If the halt which has been called in the rise in the cost of living proves permanent rather than temporary, the prospect for avoiding the much-discussed "vicious circle" will be bright—a consideration not of the first importance. WILLIAM LOCKARD RUSSELL

His life history reading like a chapter from a tale of romance of conquest and adventure, W. L. Russell has left the stage of activity in this life at the age of 63. Death came upon him quickly, after only a few days of illness. His passing shocked his associates in business, his legion of friends and is a severe blow to his immediate family.

Leaving Lima on Wednesday of last week, apparently in his usual health, he went to French Lick Springs after a business mission in Chicago, was taken ill there Friday and died on Sunday. His body has been returned to his home here, for burial.

W. L. Russell's accomplishments in life stamped him as a man of great capacity in business, sagacity in his dealings and an ability to make a success of his undertakings. Under the tutelage of his father, he became interested in the oil development business and was identified with this enterprise in practically every state where oil fields exist.

He joined the gold rush into Alaska when that territory was opened and made a success of his ventures there as in other things attempted. While in the Klondike he helped to rescue many injured persons from a snow slide in which 89 persons were killed. His exploits in South America, in connection with the telephone business, previous to his Alaskan adventures, gave this well known man who had been a resident of Lima since 1902, the well deserved reputation of being aggressive in large affairs.

He built the first telephone lines in Venezuela. Interesting President Crispo of the southern republic in granting concessions that resulted in 1,500 miles of phone lines in the Andes mountains. In the beginning of a periodical revolution in Venezuela, Russell saved the life of the president and for his valor was rewarded in the bestowal of the third degree of the Baste Bolivar, the only resident of the United States ever receiving that honor.

He fought and won a battle with yellow fever, while 18 of his employees died of the disease. He was instrumental in the building of a telephone line between Guayaquil and Quito in Ecuador.

He won prominence in the councils of the Republican party and was a delegate to the convention in 1901 which nominated Theodore Roosevelt.

The name of Russell has for many years been synonymous with business affairs in Lima. He became a large holder of valuable property and was closely identified with banking affairs.

ANNUAL TIME TANGLE BEGINS

MANY cities that had not already adopted daylight saving time have just turned their timepieces ahead one hour. This applies particularly to eastern cities. Some in Ohio have been operating on fast time for several weeks.

Fortunately, Lima will not be affected by this fad this year, thanks to the overwhelming defeat the proposal suffered at the last election. Central standard time will prevail here and it will not be necessary to retire before dark and arise in the cool of the morning when sleep is so enjoyable and beneficial during the hot season.

While we have been opposed to daylight saving time for Lima when the system was not general, we agree with those who would tinker with the clocks twice a year that there are some advantages if the matter could be nation wide or at least state wide. But the advantages are so small when a city such as Lima is considered that there can be no justification of a change of time.

OBSERVATIONS

We saw a Lima woman with her young son in leash on the street yesterday. While the belt and strap with which she kept the youngster near her attracted much attention as the boy, full of spring pep, tugged at it, we couldn't help but reflect how much better it was for her to be leading a promising young son than a snarling, snappy, noaccount, fluffy member of the canine family.

We are contemplating issuing some bonds to buy a spring suit and a few accessories for the old flivver.

New Yorkers now are saving daylight, which indicates they want to even up matters, having wasted so many night hours.

AUTHOR ELIMINATES HIMSELF ALTOGETHER FROM "BEST BOOK IN MONTHS"

(BY JAMES W. DEAN)
NEW YORK. — (Special) —
"West of the Water Tower" is the best novel I have read in months.

The discreet way to begin a criticism of book, play or picture is to indirect way. Summarize it. Point out its virtues and its weaknesses. Compare it with other books, plays or pictures. And then give your opinion. The process is repeated in this instance.

"West of the Water Tower" is recommended without hem or haw. It tells a story, it reveals life, without being restricted by the author's viewpoint, an any subject. That seems to me to be the essence of good story telling. Too many of our recent books are only excuses for passing sins, complexes and tads.

The beginning of the story may disarm the reader. Guy Plummer delivers a high school graduation oration in the church of his father, Rev. Adrian Plummer. He is attracted by the way the hair curls about the ears of Joe Chew, prettiest girl in the class and daughter of Charles G. Chew, foremost citizen of Junction City, Mo., and an author.

This sort of material is familiar in fiction. It is also familiar in life. The romance of boy and girl proceeds in a way that leads the reader to believe he is about to be visited by another revolting exploitation into sex complexes so common in current novels.

In this instance the sex phase is necessary to the story—the sex phase is necessary to life. But as the story grows the mental phase is ascendant. As the boy and girl struggle they seek to solve the perplexities of life in general and of their own lives in particular. The whole is a picture of the growth of character.

Each character in the book lives.

PRINCIPAL CHARACTERS IN "WEST OF THE WATER TOWER," AS VISUALIZED BY ARTIST E. R. JIGGINS.

Adrian Plummer, Charles G. Chew, Deslie Arnhalt and her father; Cod Dugan, the pool-room proprietor; Ed Hoecker, the commission merchant, and others are not secondary figures. They are all part of the picture. If I were to visit Junction City tomorrow I would immediately recognize them.

"West of the Water Tower" is by an anonymous author. His book is nothing of which to be ashamed. I am sure the author is a man. The book is a man's book.

A CORRESPONDENT at Wilmington, N. C., recently asked me to say something nice about "The Dim Lantern," by Temple Bailey. "The Dim Lantern" is fifth on the list of 10 best sellers as compiled by The Bookman. That's something nice. The novel is advertised as a "clean book." Six women are among the authors of the 10 best sellers. The other five are Dorothy Canfield, Wilda Carter, Gertrude Atherton, "Elizabeth" and Kathleen Norris.

TIDING OVER A FAMINE

This is the thirteenth article in a series on baby care and feeding, which I fear will run till the cows come home. I feel it my duty to remind you that I am merely an interpreter of medical science for the laity.

Among the conditions which may temporarily alter the quality or diminish the quantity of the breast milk and possibly warrant temporary resort to other food to tide over the famine are the return of menstruation, grief, shock, worry or fright, the use of certain drugs, the onset of acute diseases, and fasting. If the baby seems distressed at such times it may be advisable to remove it from the breast for one or two days and give only bottle feedings—consisting of 1 1-2 ounces of pure fresh milk, 1 ounce of boiled water and half a teaspoonful of sugar of milk, or all these quantities doubled—until the mother has recovered. In most instances, however, the baby may continue nursing and things will right themselves presently. When nursing is temporarily discontinued, the mother or her nurse should practice expression about three times a day to empty the breasts, of course employing the utmost precautions as to cleanliness.

As soon as it becomes certain that the nursing mother is pregnant the baby should be weaned.

Whenever famine is to be tided over breast feeding supplemented with the bottle or the baby weaned, by all odds the best and safest substitute for human milk is pure fresh cow's milk so modified as to resemble human milk. For temporary use or for supplementing breast feeding the formula gives above serves well, say three ounces of fresh milk, two ounces of boiled water and a teaspoonful of milk sugar.

If in doubt about the purity of the milk, pasteurization is advisable, tho a pure raw milk is always preferable for infant feeding to pasteurized milk. In order to pasteurize milk of questionable purity warm it up to 140 degrees Fahrenheit, hold at that temperature for 20 minutes, then cool. This destroys any "disease germs" which might have passed into the milk from a diseased cow, or germs which may have been contributed by diseased, filthy or careless handlers of the milk on its ways from cows to consumer.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.
The Light Sprays
Some doctors now contend that the germ of scarlet fever or the contagion is not in the poisoning but rather in the discharges from the nose and throat or from the ear if the ear runs. It is such as the case surely the scarlet fever germ or contagion doesn't last for years in a house or on articles. I still believe there is danger when the patient is peeling—C. L.
Answer—There is often danger while the patient is peeling, but the danger comes from the discharges

A THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Let me go forward, step by step, and mile by mile.
Teach me to greet the morning with a smile,
And the calm rest of night with gratitude.
Let me have courage when the wind blows rude,
Let me be gracious when my skies are fair
And unresentful in my hour of care.
If there be who need my word of cheer,
Let me not play the churl when they are near,
Let me not be deluded by the prize I see
Let me see clearly where my duty lies.
Let me not be ashamed of what I'm doing,
Let me not be ashamed of what I've done.

Big Game Picture Is Offering at Faurot

THE H. A. Snow picture, "Hunting Big Game in Africa with Gun and Camera," which is the feature at the Faurot Opera House until Thursday, is the same picture which is attracting so much attention in New York and many of the larger cities. The pictures of most of the animals were taken at the common water holes where animals meet on a common ground.

Among the other scenes of the moment are those showing the capture of lions which are said to be the most destructive beasts of the jungle and who, also called the King of beasts is also the sneak of beasts, doing all of his attacking in the bush. A family of little lion cubs are captured and kept for pets. Then there are herds of elephants, zebras, gnus, giraffes, which are quickly becoming extinct, ostrich, an attack of a hyena on the lioness in which the lioness sustains a badly dented radiator, the killing of a vicious rhino and many other interesting scenes of the jungles.

The pictures were photographed by Sidney Snow, son of H. A. Snow, whose confidence in his father's aim were responsible for the excellent pictures.

"The Little Church Around the Corner" Coming to Lyric

CLAIRE WINDSOR, the radiant screen artist, is featured in "The Little Church Around the Corner," coming to the Lyric theatre. This is the young actress who in two years has climbed to the top rung of stardom, beginning very low and reaching the top.

"The Little Church Around the Corner" is a screen adaptation of the stage play of the same name by Charles Blaney, known in every corner of the country either in its stage version or novel form. The scenario was written by Otto Prinz, who has many photoplays to his credit.

A romance between a minister and a society girl, a strike in which money goes for nothing, miracles and deep genuine sentiment figure in this drama.

Not long after young David Graham accepts the charge of a fashionable church, he falls in love with a millionaire's daughter. She is a girl who can do more good by reforming the rich than the poor, and she succumbs to the spell of her argument.

Disillusioned at every turn, he decides to return to his home town. When he comes to say goodbye to Leila, she finds him in a compromising situation with a friend of her father's, and after denouncing them both, leaves.

A tragedy happens; scores of miners are trapped. David is foremost in the rescue crew. The miners are saved, but revenge breaks forth and the strikers meet, out for blood, David appeals to them to love and not hate; he performs a miracle and convinces them. Instantly after, he is arrested for the murder of Graham, with whom he quarrelled on the night of the murder.

How he is saved at the eleventh hour.

First Rehearsal Of Follies Cast Is Held By Director

Girls Who Apply for Places Very Promising, Windsor Declares After Workout

First rehearsal of the Lima Follies was held Monday evening at Moose Temple and an impromptu chorus of eager girls went thru the preliminary steps at the direction of Walter Windsor, director.

Windsor, who arrived in Lima Monday afternoon, appeared well pleased with the local talent on hand and declared that he was fortunate in having exceptionally good material to start with.

"I don't believe I ever saw a uniformly better looking group of girls with real talent," Windsor confided.

LIKES TEACHING AMATEURS
Windsor who has appeared before the Czar of Russia and whose father was a member of the imperial dancing school, has devoted his life either to dancing or teaching others to dance. With all his experience, he declares, he would rather teach amateurs than professionals.

"I have often been asked why I dropped all professional work for the production of amateur revues," he said Monday evening. "I like amateurs because they are sincere."

"And I love to explore," Windsor added frankly. "I really enjoy bringing a voice from an amateur throat almost paralyzed with fear and to send a pair of trembling legs on a dancing errand."

"Tonight, they are frightened," he waved his hand at the group of local girls who were puzzling over a step he had just demonstrated.

DIRECTOR WALTER WINDSOR

"But wait two, three evenings. They will be different," he promised.

CHAPELONS ARE SELECTED
Official chapelons for the rehearsals have been chosen and will attend each rehearsal. Mrs. Robert Shaw and Mrs. E. Ashur have been selected to act in this capacity.

Windsor is now going over the list of applicants with a view to selecting the leading lady.

Application time has been extended to Wednesday afternoon at 2. Manager Bob Shaw of the New Orpheum stated Monday. The extension of time is due to Windsor's late arrival Monday and to give other girls a final opportunity to enter. Applications should be filed at the box office of the theatre.

TODAY I AM REAL WELL

So Writes Woman After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Jamestown, N. Y.—"I was nervous, easily excited and discouraged and had no ambition. Part of the time I was not able to sit up as I suffered with pains in my back and with weakness. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, both the liquid and tablet forms, and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash for inflammation. Today I am real well and run a rooming house and do the work. I recommend your medicine to every woman who complains, and you may use my letter to help any one else. I am passing through the Change of Life now and I keep the Vegetable Compound in the house ready to take when I feel the need of it."—Mrs. ALICE D. DAVIS, 203 W. Second St., Jamestown, N. Y.

Often some slight derangement may cause a general upset condition of the whole system, indicated by such symptoms as nervousness, backache, lack of ambition and general weakness.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will be found a splendid medicine for such troubles. In many cases it has removed the cause of the trouble.

Society News

ITEMS in the city's social calendar for this week, aside from the regular meetings of the different clubs and societies, are mostly informal and impromptu affairs, where a hostess has invited a group of intimate friends for an afternoon or evening of cards or needlework. Bridge clubs of two or three tables have meetings scheduled for this week but perhaps the largest social affair will be Mrs. W. L. Ayres' bridge-tee at the Hotel Argonne on Thursday. Mrs. J. E. Morton and Mrs. A. D. Aldman are entertaining at the Barr Hotel on the same day with a luncheon-bridge.

The most prominent of the affairs on Tuesday was given at the Elks home when Miss Helen Bower, W. North-st, entertained the members of the Tuesday Bridge club.

Luncheon was served at one o'clock, the small luncheon tables attractive in their appointments of pink and blue, being placed in the main dining room. There were three tables of bridge at play through the afternoon. Miss Bower's substitutes in the card games were Mrs. Mrs. Clinton Sealts and Mrs. Walter Howlands.

Members of the club include Mrs. H. M. Crawford, Mrs. Frances Durbin, Mrs. Mack Aitschul, Mrs. Lloyd Appias, Mrs. Tanner Maple, Mrs. Bert Sarber, Mrs. Paul Steuber, Mrs. Charles Hoyer, Mrs. V. H. Hays, Mrs. Frank Kominski, Mrs. John Blattenberg and Miss Edith Simpson.

Mrs. Paul Timmerman played Cyril Scott's "All Thru the Night" at the meeting of the Bridge club, Tuesday morning, with Mrs. John Carney, Shiloh-st. Mrs. Anna Cantwell was the leader of the morning's program and spoke of the early Welsh harp, the Welsh Eisteddfod and the great Welsh composer, Isaac Pretheroe. Mrs. Charles Mack sang Pretheroe's "The Pilot." Substituting for Miss Ella Eysenbach, Miss Emma Shappell played "Humoresque" by Tschickowsky. Following the program, luncheon was served and an informal afternoon enjoyed by the members.

The next meeting of the club will be in two weeks and will be the final gathering of the year. Members will enjoy a picnic at the home of Mrs. Clarence Lathrop of Hume.

Members of the U. N. W. society will meet Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Edna Eysenbach, 514 Elizabeth-st. This is the final regular meeting and plans for the summer will be made.

There will be a meeting of the Women's Board of Managers of the City Hospital, Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, at the hospital.

Mrs. Stanley E. Toy and daughter, Betty Helene, of W. Market-st, left Tuesday for a two months' visit with relatives and friends in Texas. They were accompanied as far as Cincinnati with Mrs. N. O. Toy, Brice-av.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Mrs. Smart: I AM going with a man I love dearly. Sometimes he seems to care for me and at other times I am a little doubtful about it. How can I find out for sure if he really cares for me? I don't want to waste my time going with him if he does not care for me.

SUNBEAM.

Y OU probably can't find out definitely about the young man's regard for you until he tells you.

Since you care for him deeply, you surely enjoy his companionship and a pleasant friendship is not a waste of time.

Of course, it is neither necessary nor desirable that you give up the attentions of other men entirely when you are so uncertain about the intentions of this one.

Dear Miss Smart: I am a girl of 18. I have blue eyes and light hair. In The Lima News of April 27th, I read that a young man, three years older than I, wants to meet a good respectable girl. I would like to correspond with him.

Send me your name and address and I will send it to "W." if you wish to correspond with him.

Dear Miss Smart: I am a girl of 21. I am in love with two young men and I would like to have you tell me which one I should marry.

They both say they love me, but I am undecided about which one I should marry. I have known one of them for eight months and the other one for one month.

Apparently you are not in love with either of them yet. Don't promise to marry any man until you know, without having to ask advice of anyone, that he is the one man you love and wish to marry.

Dear Mrs. C. C. C.: I do not care to publish your letter, but would be glad to answer it in a personal way. Will you please send me a stamped addressed envelope and I will write you immediately.

THEIBERT TO BE PLAYGROUND DIRECTOR IN LIMA

H. S. Coach Is Given Place

(BY RICHARD A. THORNBURGH)
Roscoe Theibert, head coach of athletics at Central high school for the past year, has been appointed director of playgrounds here this summer, according to announcement of Supt. Collins of the public schools Tuesday.

The board of education will sponsor three playground centers as has been its custom for the past seven years, according to Collins. The main playground will be at the college as usual, one for smaller children will be at the Garfield building on E. High-st. and another one will be opened on the south side.

Orders have been sent out by the board of education to get the grounds in shape around the two playgrounds already selected, so that as soon as school is out there will be no delay in opening the places.

GENERAL PLANS
Although details have not been thoroughly worked out by Theibert and the board of education, he has made a general outline to cover the summer's activity at the playgrounds.

In the morning, a baseball league for younger boys will play its games. In the afternoon, a league for the older boys will play. There will be track meets and tennis tournaments to make the time pass swiftly and probably one day a week will be set aside for a meet for the younger children to do various stunts.

A sand box will be used to entertain the tiny tots and on one day a week some sort of a concert will be held. It may be possible to have a radio outfit there for one or two days and the children and older people can "listen in" on news from afar.

In appointing Theibert, playground director, Supt. Collins issued a statement on behalf of the board of education in which he said:

PLEASED
"There is none in the school system we'd rather name to this place than Theibert. Never have we had in Central high school a man with more wholesome influence over the boys than he has. He is a great sport, is well liked and has done a fine job as director of athletics."

Theibert will probably also return to Lima next fall at the Central coach.

GIBBONS TO BOX JACK DEMPSEY

CHICAGO — Jack Dempsey, world's champion heavyweight boxer, will fight Tom Gibbons of St. Paul, Minn., his long sought championship bout next July 4 at Shelby, Mont., Loy Moloney, Montana, state commander of the American Legion, announced here. The battle will be 15 rounds to a decision.

Moloney said that all that remained to be done is to sign articles and select a referee.

Moloney did not announce the agreement under which Dempsey will box but it was learned a $100,000 certified check will be given him when he signs and it was indicated Kearns assented to a plan permitting Dempsey either a straight guarantee or a percentage of the gate receipts.

Dempsey's last bout was with Georges Carpentier, July 2, 1924. Gibbons scored a technical knockout over Chuck Wiggins of Indianapolis in the tenth round of a scheduled 15 round bout at New Orleans Monday night.

JOHNSON SEEMS TO LACK KNOCKOUT PUNCH

Just at present the heavyweight situation is the all-absorbing topic of conversation in this burg.

With Jess Willard at Yonkers putting in shape for Floyd Johnson, and Luis Firpo making ready to annihilate Jack McAuliffe, the pot is heating among the big fellows.

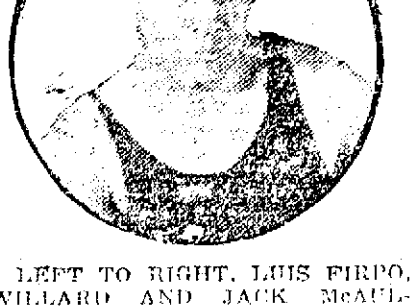

Willard certainly looks in great shape. There isn't a bit of superfluous weight on Willard. He looks to be in the best condition of his career.

The Willard of today looks to be a better conditioned athlete than the Willard of six or seven years ago.

As one watches Willard in action with his sparring partner he simply can't brush aside the fact that he is past 10 years of age. Willard must do the big things in the early rounds of any fight in which he takes part.

Let us pass up Willard and consider his opponent, Floyd Johnson. In the heavyweight elimination affair that is to be staged here May 12.

Recently Johnson went 12 rounds with Fred Fulton, the much-plastered plasterer. Johnson won on points but failed to impress anyone.

Last October the writer saw Johnson dispose of Hal Martin, once a highly touted contender for Dempsey's title. Despite the fact that Martin is only a shadow of his former self, fighting ability considered, Johnson's victory was impressive because he showed promise.

Since then Johnson has beaten a number of so-so heavyweights. A few weeks ago, however, at Grand Rapids, he was able to get only a draw with Pete Lohman of Toledo a fighter but little known outside of his own confines.

Johnson dropped Lohman in the first round, seemed to have him all but out, but failed to finish him.

and during the rest of the bout had his hands full.

Johnson, in his bout with Fulton, sent the plasterer to the floor in the opening round and once again was unable to end the fight, despite the fact that Fulton was very kroogy.

HAS JOHNSON PUNCH?

Does Johnson's wallop lack dynamite?

His failure to drop Lohman and Fulton for the count, after having them all but helpless in the opening round, would make it seem so. Johnson hit Fulton with everything, but Fulton, never noted for his ability to take it, smiled thru the entire affair.

Johnson is courageous. He showed me that. However, he lacks experience and Willard may upset some of his plans for a Dempsey meeting.

At present Johnson wouldn't have a chance with the champion. He needs at least a year more of preparation.

Of the four fighters to be seen in action shortly, Willard, Firpo, McAuliffe and Johnson, Firpo at present looks by far the most dangerous of the quartet.

He wrote Manager Kohler concerning the game and talked to him on long distance telephone Tuesday morning at which time it was definitely settled.

GIANTS, YANKS WIN GAMES

Sixth, seventh and eighth places in the National League standing and seventh and eighth places in the American League were unoccupied today, indicating that hard and close fights are being made in both circuits.

The New York Giants had a clear two game lead in the National over Chicago and Cincinnati who were tied for second place. Just a notch ahead of Boston and Philadelphia dwelling together in third position, crowded by Pittsburgh and St. Louis who were knotted in fourth place.

Brooklyn, with only three victories and nine defeats, had a clear hold on the elevated cellar, fifth place.

In the American, Cleveland, kept a safe distance ahead of the New York Yankees, who climbed back into second place by hammering three Washington pitchers while the Tigers bowed before the Indians.

The Athletics were a step behind the Cobblers, beating St. Louis by timely hitting in the eleventh inning, 4 to 2.

TRIPLE TIE
By vanquishing Chicago 7 to 3, with a triple tie with the St. Louis Cardinals, St. Paul, put the White Sox deeper into the cellar, where they have a clearer right in their league than the Robins have in the National.

The Yanks made the day memorable by cracking the Washington pitchers for 17 hits, which they converted into 17 runs to the Senators' four. The Yanks batted out 15 runs in the last four innings.

After dropping three straight, the Giants defeated Brooklyn in the opener of their series, 4 to 3, while the Cubs went into second place with Cincinnati by falling before the Reds, 6 to 4.

Boston battered a trio of Quaker pitchers, getting 15 hits and counting 13 times to the Phillies' three.

Ray Blades, Cardinal left fielder, went into a triple tie with Ken Williams of the Browns and Hartnett of the Cubs with his fourth homer of the season, helping his team to a 7-5 victory over Pittsburgh.

SHORT SHAVINGS

Mrs. Gerald Montgomery, Sidney, R. D. 2 writes this one: "One evening I was singing a little song. My husband became tired of it and said, 'I'll give you a penny if you'll quit singing.' I took the penny and said, 'Give me another penny or I'll start singing again.' I got two pennies."

Rob Stanton, Wapakoneta, claims that he has the most versatile Air-dale pup in the county. "Once he do many tricks?" a friend asked him. "No said Bob. 'But he eats raw potatoes, cabbage heads and candy.'"

Charles W. Herbst, recounts the sad experience of a neighbor who joined a group of boys playing ball in the street.

His wife called from the sidewalk. "What do you know about baseball?"

He turned and answered, "Just you watch me."

"He picked out an unfortunate moment to turn around," reports the sympathetic Herbst.

"Just at that moment the batter drove out a fast liner that caught him in the back of the neck."

M. Hendershott, grocer, reports an acquaintance has a crystal receiving set for radio and has been experimenting with amplifiers with-out much success. He was making a large tin funnel to use in filling his wine cask late on. While he was soldering at the kitchen stove his wife appeared and asked, "Now what is that going to be, John?"

He said, "I know what you think. You think it's going to be for loud speaking. But you're wrong. I'm going to use it to fill my wine keg."

She said, "So there's going to be a lot of loud conversation around here after all!"

Ora Hinton, helped look for a meteor which fell recently near St. Marys.

Two young men who reported it said it had a long tail and went off with a bang.

"They ran so fast," says Hinton, "that when they stopped for lack of breath they couldn't remember where they were when they started to run from it."

TODAY'S PUZZLE

Transform the six straight lines shown above into three, without crossing out or erasing any of the lines.

Yesterday's answer.
The number 121 may be divided evenly by 11, but if it is divided by 2, 3, 4, 5, or 6, there will in each case be a remainder of 1. (2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 each go evenly into 120.)

Its rich, bubbly lather makes it delightful for every use. Works like magic in the hardest and coldest water.

The Merchant and His Bank

ABOVE all things, the average merchant demands a bank of standing in the community, a bank that enjoys the advantages of wide experience, adequate backing, and proper administration. He demands a service that is lacking in none of the essential qualities that distinguish the modern, metropolitan financial organizations.

He demands, in short, a bank such as the Old National of this city; an institution possessing the respect, confidence and patronage of many of Lima's most representative merchants.
